'Traminette' grape named Outstanding Fruit Cultivar

by ASHS

08/12/15

'Traminette' – a mid-season white-wine grape released by Cornell's grape breeding program in 1996 – was named the Outstanding Fruit Cultivar for 2015 by the American Society for Horticultural Science (ASHS) at its annual meeting in New Orleans August 7.

Johnson Estate is very excited and proud to announce the following awards

- 2016 vintage awarded DOUBLE GOLD,
- 2017 vintage awarded DOUBLE GOLD, International Eastern Wine Competition.
- 2018 East Meets West Wine Competition.
- Best of Class: 2020

Best of Class, and Best of Show Sparkling:
International Eastern Wine Competition

The multiple accolades for our favorite Sparkling Traminette are, we believe, well-deserved. It is an elegant and delicious wine, complementary to a wide variety of food, ranging from appetizers to desserts.
